Fresh, kettle-cooked, natural pinto, black, and garbanzo beans from Sysco FreshPoint Natural. These beans are domestically grown and harvested, providing a true farm-to-fork product that will help you navigate labor challenges while maintaining high-quality, scratch-ready ingredients in your recipes.

FEATURES & BENEFITS

- Sysco FreshPoint Natural Fresh Ready-to-Eat Beans are non-GMO and offer a very simple ingredient list with no added salt, preservatives, or color additives.
- No soaking, cooking, draining, or rinsing and takes less space than a can. Enjoy the convenience of a ready-to-eat product with the quality, taste, and texture of dry beans that have been scratch-made and prepared in-house.
- Prepared al dente, these beans have a fresh flavor and texture that holds when used in all recipes, hot or cold.
- Grown pesticide-free on a woman-owned family farm, these beans come in BPA-free boilable and steam-able pouches that replace one #10 can.
